WARNING. .

We wish to caution all users of Simmon Laver Regulator on a subject of the deepest interest and importance to their health— perhaps their lives. The sole proprietors and makers of Simmons Liver Regulator - orn that customers are often deceived by buying and taking some medicine of a similar appearance or taste, believing it to te Simmons Liver Regulator. We warn you that unless the word Regulator is on the package or bottle, that it is not Simmons Liver Regulator. No one else makes, or ever has made Simmons Liver Regulator, or caything called Simmons Liver Regulator, but J. H. Zeilin & Co., and no medicine made by anyone eise is the same. . We alone can put it up, and we cannot be responsible, other medicines represented as the same do not help you as you are led to expect they will. Bear this fact well in mind, if you have been in the habit of using a medicine which you supposed to be Simmons Liver Regulator, because the name was somewhat like at, and the package did not have the word Regulator on it, you have been imposed upon and have not been taking Simmons over Regulator at all. The Regulator has been favorably known for many years, and all who use it know how necessary it is for Fever and Ague, Bilious Fever, Constipation, Headache, Dyspepsia, and all disorders arising from a Diseased Liver.

We ask you to look for yourselves, and see that Simmons Liver Regulator, which you can readily distinguish by the Red Z on wrapper, and by our name, is the only medicine called Simmons Liver Regulator. J. H. ZEILIN & CO.

WRITTEN AFTER A CISIT TO THE ESTILL MONU-MENT IN THE COMMINEY AT RICHMOND, KY.

(From Woman's Edition of Register)

Let poets wake their lutes in praise Of love's enchanting dream And gild the deeds of splendid days With fancy's fadeless beam. But ob, while grateful mem ries spring In hearts that ne'er grow cold Some ruder, sterner bard should sing

The plone rs of old.

Rise up oh, minstrel of the gun

The buckskin and the kulte, Here on the soil their valor won Cail back the brave to life, Where fair Kentucky's silver track Blends with Onio's gold,

From vale and upland call them back-. The ploneers of old, The green wood knows their steps no more Their forts are in decay, Their skiffs have vanished from the shore, Their homes, oh, where are trey?

Where are the men who dared and died Where are those hearts of god, Virginia's boast, Kentucky's pilde, The pioneers of old? Their rifles echoed once where tow, Our fruitful orchards bud,

Was watered with their blood, While underneath the splendid rky, A multitude untold, Wrapped in their bunting garb the lie The pioneers of old, Boone slumbers by Kentucky's shor, Mid shadows cool and dim,

The land we furrow with the ploy

Where softly sounds the dripping cat And soft the river's hymn-Brave Kenton, Clarke and Estill take Their rest beneath the monid, And power less Giery's voice to wake The pioneers of old. But we whose heritage of peace

They grandly, nobly gave Shall love o'er thre or valor cease To mourn the leathless brave? Shame on the craver heart-that lets Its gratitude grow cold, Shame on the ingrate who forge's The pioncers of old Rise up ob, minstre proudly sing

The spurless knights of youre, Whose music was the rifle's ring, Whose home the wood and shore. The winds and waves shall lend to thee, Their strains so free and bold, And song exalt eternaly The pioneers of old.

GOLD STANDARD UNCONSTITUTIONAL. Extract from the speech of Daniel Vebster, delivered in the senate of th

United States December 21, 1836. Mr. Webster stood at the very front f his profession as a lawyer and was recognized as the ablest expounder of the onstitution. Mr. Webster said: I am clearly of the opinion that gold

Watterson vs. Walton.

The Plumed Knight of Stanford Flays The Star Eyed Goddess,

Let All Men Read And Learn.

(Stanford Semi-Weekly Interior Journal.) Our good friend, Mr. Watterson, eems to have as many lives as a cat is said to possess. We knock him out, according to our partial friends, but he manages to come back again, after taking good time to catch his breath, just as we were congratulating ourselves that at last we had got in the Fitz-immons blow and sent him like Corbett to grass for good and all. Saturday he came to the scratch again, showing more vitality than ever, judging from the length and humor of the screed that he devotes to us-near y three columns of the Courier-Journal. He starts out by telling a story, the point of which seems that elections are someimes lost by over confidence and we often find that the people don't "want us" as bad as we had imagined. If it is intended to apply this to our confidence in the election of Shackelford, it is denidedly inapropos. Our confidence is born of a knowledge of the situation by keeping in touch with men who do the voting. One season's spurt in wheat because of the failure of the crop in other parts give him up until after great effort and of the world and the efforts of the mony changers, all of whom are the most when he avers that Mr. Hindman will be implacable gold bugs, to force silver to the contending man in the race and other about to return home the conversation
